

CAR CHARGE OUTLET

Has the house or structure been built within the past 20 years?

If so, the panel is more than likely updated to accommodate the 240 V outlet.

Is the house or structure older than 20 years?

A technician can come out and provide a free quote (no obligation for the service). A new breaker would be needed in this case. The further away the outlet is from the panel, the cost increases